

James Hooker
Dr. Michael Steinmann
Philosophy Final

In paradise we plucked food from the trees /
And we say, God gave this fruit.
On Earth we work to sustain ourselves / And toil in fields, and cook every day And clean up the kitchen / And we say, We did it all by ourselves.
In bondage to the world / The Wheel of Law is set in motion And the stars forever display our fate / But consecrated action outwits the stars And the bonds of action are no more.
We toil in fields, and cook every day / And clean up the kitchen We chop wood and carry water and say, Thy will be done O Lord On Earth as it is in Heaven.

At the end of day the peaceful bliss of sleep familiar human perspective [fades] again.

O Bodhisattva of Compassion! When he meditated deeply I saw the emptiness of all proportional philosophy is realized in formal equality all relevant persons are treated in relation to their due.

So I Will Say It Like It Is
And recall a fragment of a conversation between the two:

two persons [who] are equal which is distinguished?

Emptiness is key. [An] explanation of The Heart
The answer is emptiness.

W.C. Handy had just died – I said, He was never even born –
He never died either.

Did he know that at the end of the night of time all things return to my nature manifesting once more into the light... when the new day begins?

like sunshine to grow the tree; the mill and the logger, the logger's bread

think

Do you know anything?

How the Tao works in reality? One attempts to describe the Tao, one

Forever and forever, rolls round in the circles of time

O, with vain hopes, vain works, and vain thoughts!

the logger's father and mother and the universe.

According to Article II, Section 1, Clause 2 of the U.S.
Constitution,

"Yes, this is the Tao,"

Bound infinite, man finally asks, where do we go? With love Krishna describes voidness, nothingness, or Vacuity.

So party party party party!

it doesn't really matter how

Krishna
offers divine reassurance
Krishna
[Is] the same to all beings
Krishna
Krishna
Krishna
"I am, "I am, "I am,

Look at my progressive, spiritual, and environmentally centered lyrics.
Am I?" Am I?" Am I?"

with no qualifications otherwise.

who is saying it? or with what words or stylization. What is perceived? The Tao. Who perceives it? The Tao.

This love extends to all beings, but look, you have to offer yourself in the fire of sacrifice experience no distinction between the ego and Self
Literally offer all actions to Him, find refuge in Him.

It's the fear that keeps humans from understanding and the struggle (and joy) that comes with it & the recognition of inherent emptiness.

knowledge, virtue, and talent.
fixed criteria dishearten the budding Confucian

Buddha said this raindrop called your life it's still a raindrop in the sea

Look at the Gospel according to John:
you will know that I am in My Father, and you are in Me, and I am in you

[All I want is all I can see All I can see is right in front of me]

A non-partisan qualification screening process. years of experience, and track records of success or the lack thereof,
Will get you where you need to be

This Bright Ocean of Infinitude
This lotus land of the Buddha come and go like the sparkle on your lake, mind, or dive into the rectangular white blaze of this thought now:

Knowing the Self to be One with the Father, the devotee banishes mortal existence forever, and he shall soon become pure and reach everlasting peace.

Here, discoveries made by the light of the Dharma guide us through illusion, and thus become dissolved.

These are only a few practical examples

As you can see, there is no you or yours.
You! are the illusion

For this is my word of promise, that he who loves me shall not perish

By
focusing on the present and with deep concentration & meditation, one can cut through the illusion and understand the meaning of fullness in emptiness.

Note: All candidates must meet respective qualifications before they can be enlightened. It sets standards to prevent people without adequate qualifications from occupying public offices.

So disrupt!
But disruption doesn't exist,
In fact the Kingly Heeding doesn't exist, because You! cannot possibly be separate from the Tao you've already gone all the way across the great ocean of existence and so have I and here we are.

A great blessing is offered for those who take refuge in [Krishna] and strive to be free - the devotee finally receives freedom from the mundanity of mortal existence:

I feel the change, I see the vicious circle / Finally turned into a virtuous one

The electors are not chosen because of their wisdom.
The only qualifications for electoral representatives are usually their loyalty to their political party.

See?

tell us a little more about the trip
It says,
Every being in the universe is an expression of the Tao. It springs into existence, unconscious,
perfect, free, takes on a physical body, lets circumstances complete it...

We are born into this world carrying a hidden secret, hidden but always present. The secret is:

They know Brahman, they know Atman, and they know what Karma is.

The painful cycles of reincarnation experienced by the human being are experienced by human beings.
[Are you one?]

As such, the United States is dealing with a system of proportional equality, an exclusion principle, without the key idea of knowledge-based, skill, or [angelic] qualifications.

It seems our "humanity" is governed by the system according to our understanding of it.
If we fully understand the perfected beings, we become perfect.

Our mortal hopes are offered at the feet of the Lord.

Our work is offered in adoration to Krishna.
Our thoughts are offered from a pure heart with love

(and the suffering caused by attachment to the skandhas) ends

“tradeoff”

Or, slough off

Your human skin for angel wings.

thy soul in renunciation shalt be free.

Um...

